Competition Rules and Guidelines

1. You must submit an original artistic design for each of the 8 button themes. Only submit images please.
2. Your submission should include 4 images per page (e.g., 4 images on page 1 and 4 images on page 2).
3. Your submission should identify which theme each of your designs represents below each image.
4. You must include a cover page with your application submission, which includes the following information:
 - a. Your name,
 - b. Your home address,
 - c. Your preferred telephone number,
 - d. Your e-mail address,
 - e. Your high school and grade, and
 - f. How you learned about SevenDays®.
5. You must submit your final application by e-mail to scholarships@give.sevendays.org by midnight CST on October 11, 2019. The subject line should say SevenDays Button Art Competition Submission.
6. You may only win for one category. Winners will be notified in mid-November.
7. Winners must commit to being available for interviews and other publicity opportunities.

WINNERS RECEIVE THE FOLLOWING ADDITIONAL RECOGNITION:

- Artistic exposure. Over 100,000 buttons are distributed each year, and designs will be used on marketing materials.
- Winners will be recognized at the award ceremony during the SevenDays® week of events occurring April 21-27, 2020.
- Winners have the opportunity to participate in a SevenDays®-sponsored First Fridays art show on Friday, March 6, 2020 at Buttonwood Art Space. SevenDays® and Buttonwood also will host a "sneak peak" art event earlier in the year.
- Art submissions will be on display at the Kansas City Library Show as part of the SevenDays® Kindness Art Exhibit, which begins on February 18, 2020.
